SUCCESS STORY RAHUL RANGA

A very famous Japanese proverb “Nana korobi, ya oki” which means fall down seven times and get up eight. No matter how many times you get knocked down, you get up again. Today’s story is about someone who did exactly this. The difficulties he faced did not deter him from achieving his dreams.

Meet our hero – Rahul who hails from Jhajjar, Haryana. After completing class 10th from Jawahar Navodaya Vidyalaya, Jhajjar, Rahul decided to prepare for JEE. Rahul completed class 11th and 12th from Govt. Senior Secondary School, Hisar, and received sponsorship for his JEE coaching from Shiksha Prayas. He says,

The key to success is to never give up. If you continue to walk on the path that you have chosen for yourself, your hard work will one day surely payoff

former sponsorship student

“In Hisar everything was new to me, it was a new place, new school, new environment and moreover I was away from my family. At that time, I was emotionally broken, I was so disturbed that I could not do well in my exams and had to repeat an entire year. Back home my family was also very worried about me. Pawan sir and Sangeeta ma’am from Shiksha Prayas got in touch with me and started motivating me to start afresh and pursue my education again. They instilled hope in me by slowly convincing me that failing once does not necessarily mean the end of everything. Shiksha Prayas holds a very special place in my heart. The emotional support that they gave to me was greater than any monetary support.

I have had many low moments in my life, be it during class 11th or during under graduation but I have learnt one thing, failure is after all the pillar of success. It is not something that should knock one down forever but something that should motivate a person to face life's challenges with increased vigor and hope.”
